WELCOME

I invite you to this year's CHA Nursing & Midwifery Symposium.

Each year, CHA's Nursing & Midwifery Symposium brings together the nurses and midwives, the lifeblood of our hospitals and aged care services, spanning the length and breadth of this nation. It presents a unique opportunity to connect with peers and colleagues, learn together about new initiatives in health, develop and build upon core leadership skills, and celebrate the valuable contributions made by Catholic sector nurses and midwives around Australia.

This year's Symposium is packed with valuable content, delivered by sector and industry experts such as Susan Alberti Co-founder and Managing Director of the DANSU Group and Chairman of the Susan Alberti Medical Research Foundation, Professor Jill White professor Emerita of the Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery of University of Sydney and Board representative of the Nursing Now! Campaign, and Matiu Bush Design Integration Lead Bolton Clark.

With thanks to sponsors HESTA, Australian Catholic University and Bankfirst for supporting this event for our nurses and midwives.

I look forward to seeing you in Melbourne!

– Suzanne Greenwood CEO

SUSAN ALBERTI

Co-founder/Managing Director of the DANSU Group and Chairman of the Susan Alberti Medical Research Foundation

Susan has been responsible for raising in excess of $100 million toward medical research with a focus on type 1 diabetes.

Among her multiple roles, Susan (Sue) Alberti AC is the Co-founder and Managing Director of the DANSU Group, and Chairman of the Susan Alberti Medical Research Foundation.

Through her charity work, Susan has been responsible for raising in excess of $100 million toward medical research with a focus on type 1 diabetes. She has been responsible for establishing multiple research wings and units, including the Susan Alberti Complications, the JDRF Danielle Alberti Memorial Centre for Diabetes Complications, and the Susan and Angelo Alberti Diabetes Discovery Wing to undertake research.

Susan joined the Board of the Western Bulldogs Football Club in 2004, where she served 3 years as Vice President. Her passion for AFL then extended to the newly formed AFLW league, and her involvement helped to clear a path for women's participation in the game. She is currently the national ambassador for the women's AFLW league.

Susan has been a finalist in the Australian of the Year Award on two occasions. In 1997, she received her AM (Member of the Order of Australia) for her contribution towards the cause of diabetes research. In 2007, she was awarded an AO (Officer of the Order of Australia) in recognition of her long and outstanding contribution to major medical research institutions, and in 2016, she received a Companion of the Order of Australia (AC) award.

In 2017 Susan was appointed to the ACNC Advisory Board (Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission), and in the same year received the AIS Award for leadership, for her vision, and influence in driving the launch of the inaugural AFL Women's competition. She was also named Melburnian of the Year in 2017, the city's highest accolade, celebrating significant contributions in sustainability, community, multiculturalism and strengthening Melbourne's profile.

MARY DELAHUNTY

General Manager, HESTA, Master of Ceremonies

Mary is the Head of Impact for HESTA and has been with the fund since early 2013. She has held senior roles in financial services organisations for over 15 years and is passionate about delivering dignity in retirement for all Australians. HESTA is one of Australia's largest superannuation funds with over $45bn under management and over 850,000 members.

Mary is a 2015 Churchill Fellow awarded for the completion of international research on equity for women in pension systems.

Mary was recently appointed as the Chair of the Ministerial Advisory Council for Gender Equality in the State of Victoria. The Council's role is to advise the Minister for Women on the Safe and Strong equality strategy.

Mary is also a councillor and immediate former Mayor of the City of Glen Eira. Glen Eira City Council manages $1.4 billion of community assets and has the lowest operating cost per property of inner Melbourne councils.

Mary is also a Board Member of The Emergency Services Telecommunication Authority and an advisory panel member for the State Government, she is a past Chair of ReLink Australia, a National Not For Profit organisation offering sports and recreation opportunities to break the cycle for disadvantaged Australians.

Mary holds a Masters of Finance (Corporate Advisory), has three young children and is a passionate and heartbroken St Kilda supporter.
